The Washington Wildlife and Recreation Coalition

Helping local governments secure state funds for recreation, habitat and working farms

MEMBER BROCHURE

About The Coalition

In 1990, the Coalition's founders persuaded the Legislature to establish the Washington Wildlife and Recreation Program (WWRP), a Recreation and Conservation Office grant program that helps local and state agencies create new parks, protect wildlife habitat and preserve farmland.

Since the program's inception, the Coalition has advocated for state funding for the WWRP, raising $550 million for 912 parks and ball fields, walking and biking trails, local beaches and boat launches, wildlife habitat and working farms.

To date, cities have received $123 million in WWRP grants and counties have received $84 million.

Former Governors, Dan Evans and Mike Lowry co-chair this diverse coalition of recreation, business, environmental, labor and farming interests.
